

A BABY BROTHER

Dad said that it was time [the/ and/ for] Danny's mom to go to the hospital. Danny's [sip/ mat/ mom] was going to have another baby. Danny [was/ the/ jet] excited. He could not wait to [see/ rid/ wet] if he would have a baby brother. Danny [fit/ cart/ had] decided that he did not want [if/ a/ to] baby sister. "Girls are nice, but [dot/ to/ it] would be more fun to have [a/ or/ so] brother to play with," Danny thought.

Danny [wheat/ shine/ helped] his father put the suitcase in [and/ the/ oat] car. Then the family climbed into [bet/ the/ gash] car. Danny's dad drove to the hospital quickly. Danny [step/ red/ and] his dad sat in the waiting [best/ fish/ room] at the hospital. At last, a [stood/ nurse/ boast] came out and told them that Danny's [mom/ sat/ hit] had a baby boy. Danny was excited. Danny's [troop/ father/ seeing] was excited. Danny felt happy that [he/ to/ up] had a brand-new baby brother.

Danny [could/ toast/ either] not wait for his mom and [red/ dad/ sat] to bring the baby home. He [claps/ wheat/ helped] his grandma clean the house. Cleaning [up/ he/ as] the house was not what Danny [did/ sat/ her] best. However, he did say that [to/ he/ by] would help clean the house this [time/ read/ what]. Grandma and Danny hung blue streamers [it/ he/ on] the mailbox. The blue streamers let [sat/ and/ the] neighbors know that there was a [find/ new/ down] baby boy at Danny's house.  Danny cooked a big meal for [wings/ wishes/ supper] that night.

At last, Danny saw [fit/ the/ can] car pull up in the driveway. [Said/ Dad/ Mat] went around the car and opened [wet/ are/ the] door so Mom could get out. [Mom/ Sat/ Got] stepped out of the car with Danny's [nest/ cart/ baby] brother in her arms. Danny raced [swan/ able/ down] the steps to look at his brother. "[Far/ Why/ Lap], my brother looks all red and wrinkled," [road/ land/ said] Danny. "Well, you looked this way [and/ too/ the] when you were first born," said Danny's [reads/ eastern/ mother]. "Your brother won't look this way forever."

Danny's [mother/ thing/ castle] went into the house and sat [lip/ down/ hand] on the sofa. "Would you like [to/ be/ is] hold the baby?" she asked Danny. Danny [took/ ring/ time] the baby into his arms very [matter/ gently/ boast]. All of a sudden, the baby [opened/ bring/ turkey] his eyes. The baby looked right [at/ be/ tip] Danny. Danny smiled down at the [lisp/ wing/ baby]. He was glad to have a [said/ will/ baby] brother.
